There is another way: critical reflection and challenging the status quo.

Dean Millson & Lisa Grocott

Studio Anybody

The clues weren't universal, but they were familiar to us – Nicholson Baker, Depeche Mode, La Haine, Felix Gonzales-Torres. In the late nineties Studio Anybody was conceived by Stuart Geddes, Lisa Grocott, Jason Evans, Dean Millson, and Dave Smith a group of graphic designers whose common interests were in the music not the CD sleeve, the film narrative not the title sequence.

Founded in Melbourne, Australia our intent was to develop a studio research practice model to keep us engaged, reflective and motivated.
